

XXXVI NATIONAL SHORT FILM COMPETITION OF L'ALFÀS DEL PI

XXXIV L'ALFÀS DEL PI FILM

FESTIVAL FROM 5th to 14th JULY 2024

GENERAL CONDITIONS APPLIED IN THE OFFICIAL CATEGORY

Participation in the competition is open to Spanish film producers and filmmakers, and or with an office in Spain.

Fictional films made during the years 2023 and 2024 can be presented for competition, films with a running time that does not exceed 30 minutes and that have not been presented in previous editions of the event. Documentary and animated films will not be accepted.

Films presented will remain with the festival for their incorporation into the festival's archive. Films not selected will become part of the audio visual archive of the festival and may be used in events parallel to the festival after notifying the producer.

The producers of the selected short films authorize the use of a fragment of their works (with a maximum of 3 minutes) as promotional material in any media, including internet.

Each film maker can present a maximum of 2 short films. A Committee will be selected by representatives of the l'Alfàs del Pi Film Festival that will be responsible of selecting those films that will compete in the official category of the competition from among all the short films presented.

GENERAL RULES

Selected short films for competition will appear in the Film Festival's catalogue and will be screened in public during the days that the event is held. The locations and dates of their screening will be announced in the festival's official programme. The jury's decision is final.

Films in a non-Spanish language must be subtitled in Spanish for the jury's consideration and can also be sent with other options concerning the display of other official languages.

Any additional information or clarification will be provided by email, telephone, in written form or by calling the festival.

All participants fully accept the present rules as well as the resolution of any problem that may occur that is not contemplated in these by rules by the festival's organization. Registration will be carried out by sending the short film online through any of the valid platforms of the festival, filling in all the required fields.

Participants of the festival will be responsible for expenses resulting from this platform.

Available platforms for the presenting of films will be:
